

Just Wait And See

The Knack

I know she's yours now oh you'll find out
If you should stumble she'll walk on
She doesn't need you oh you sad fool
Just turn your head and she'll be gone

Some girls will tell you anything
For the things you bring
Cars and diamond rings
This girl will give you what you need
But it's not guaranteed
That she can be believed
And now you tell me oh no not me
But you'll find out just wait and see

It doesn't matter what you do
She won't be there for you
When she sees someone new
And now you tell me oh no not me
But you'll find out just wait and see
