

Serious Fun

The Knack

When you get what you want baby
You forget about what you need
If nescience is what you flaunt baby
Just remember that you're what you read yeah
Now hemingway and nietsche say there has to be a better way
To sanctify your soul
It's no crime to be lazy baby
But that ain't rock and roll oh no
I know you don't want to hear it but you
Still can be anything you want to be
It's time to change 'cause the time has come
For serious fun serious fun serious fun serious fun

You don't have to be rich baby
Doesn't matter if you're young or old no
We all know life's a bitch man but knowledge is the gift
No it isn't heavy metal but it's worth its weight in gold
I know it's hard to believe it but you
Still can have anything and everything
If you believe then the time has come
For serious fun serious fun serious fun serious fun

Serious fun serious fun serious fun
Serious fun serious fun serious fun
Fun fun fun

When you get what you want baby
You forget about what you need oh
You're headed for the restaurant baby
But your head is what you got to feed yeah
