

Won't Let Go/Aces & Eights

The Knack

A loss of innocence -- the river flows
A game of consequence and so it goes
And so it goes -- you play your hand
A pawn of circumstances will understand

Oh, oh I won't let go
Something to believe in, anyone'll tell you so
And there's nothing wrong that you can't make right,
If the feeling's strong make it last all night
Oh oh, I won't let go

You face infinity -- a grain of sand
A faith in mystery, you play your hand
You play your hand, you rise and fall
A taste of ecstasy the curtain call

Oh, oh I won't let go
Something to believe in, anyone'll tell you so
And there's nothing wrong that you can't make right,
If the feeling's strong make it last all night
Oh oh, I won't let go

I'm on the ceiling
Ain't ever coming down
I feel the feeling round n round n
Round n round and round

A loss of innocence -- the river flows
A game of consequence and so it goes

Oh, oh I won't let go
Something to believe in, anyone'll tell you so
And there's nothing wrong that you can't make right,
If the feeling's strong make it last all night
Oh oh, I won't let go
