

I'm coming over but I won't be long
I'm coming over
I'm making a new song

I pick a car and it's a fifteen minutes drive Rock Classics on the radio to clear my mind

Sometimes in the weekends
we meet up at our favourite cafe I'll order a chai tea and you will have the usual au lait
and when the place get crowded then they freak out
and they play the techno louder yes, when the place get crowded
then they freak out
and they play the techno louder

Here comes another day in isolation hold out your hand feel my brain burns you suck and lick but you still don't know why I could fuck your brains out but I'm not interested in that life

Sometimes in the weekends
we meet up at our favourite cafe
and when the place get crowded
and they play the techno louder
yes, when the place get crowded
then they freak out
and they play the techno louder

I'm coming over but I won't be long
I'm coming over
I'm making a new song
