

Time

The Knocks

You were born into the rhythm
Marinated by the sound
Of a billion voices
On the merry-go-round
There's too much information
To know that love is free
It comes in every color
So go make a masterpiece, masterpiece

Time, oh, time
Feels like she keeps passing you by
You gotta take some time, sometimes
To know that she's been right by your side
Sing it
Feel it
Hold it
Mold it
Dream it
Touch it
Sing it
Cause everything is right on time
Don't you know you'll never know why
Time...

What's inside your picture?
And who you're gonna save?
The preacher's in your backyard
Who's digging your grave?
Maybe there's a reason
An invitation to the show
Keep some karma in your corner
And pick your poison to the toast

Time, oh, time
Feels like she keeps passing you by
You gotta take some time, sometimes
To know that she's been right by your side
Sing it
Feel it
Hold it
Mold it
Dream it
Touch it
Sing it
Cause everything is right on time
Don't you know you'll never know why
Time...

Feel it
Oh yeah!
Dream it
Hold it
Mold it
Oh yeah!
Time, oh, time...
Feels like she keeps passing you by
You gotta take some time, sometimes

To know that she's been right by your side
Sing it
Feel it
Hold it
Mold it
Dream it
Touch it
Sing it
Cause everything is right on time
Don't you know you'll never know why
Time...

Time, oh, time...
Feels like she keeps passing you by
You gotta take some time, sometimes
To know that she's been right by your side (Yeah!)
Sing it
Feel it
Hold it
Mold it
Dream it
Touch it
Sing it
Cause everything is right on time
Don't you know you'll never know why
Time...

Sing it
Feel it
Hold it
Mold it
Dream it
Touch it
Sing it
Cause everything is right on time
Don't you know you'll never know why
Time...
