Trouble

The Knocks

The trouble with you The trouble with you You don't do what your heart wants to You never listen to it, no, no You never listen to it, no, no That's the trouble That's the trouble That's the trouble with you The trouble with you The trouble with you That's the trouble with you

The doctors say the blood is pumpin' through you just fine Pulse and tempo on the neon light They can't tell you why you don't feel right They don't know why you can't sleep at night

The trouble with you You don't do what your heart wants to You never listen to it, no, no That's the trouble with you The trouble with you You don't do what your heart wants to You never listen to it, no, no You never listen to it, no, no That's the trouble That's the trouble with you The trouble with you The trouble with you

So-called friends with the bad advice Smile through the day, tryin' to seem nice They don't care if you feel like this And they don't know what the trouble is

The trouble with you You don't do what your heart wants to You never listen to it, no, no That's the trouble with you The trouble with you You don't do what your heart wants to You never listen to it, no, no You never listen to it, no, no That's the trouble That's the trouble That's the trouble with you Listen to it, no, no The trouble with Never listen to it, no, no