The Kovenant

Reach beyond the constellations
A movement towards the monumental
Universal secrets - the cosmic error
Sculptured by those dying generations
I drank the passions... of those lost in the paradox

As the stars touched my essence
The last of all creations wept
Paralyzed with wonder and confusion
Blurred by the serpents temptation

I drank the passions of those lost in the paradox

Entangled in a swirling black aura of united burning chaos
Anthems to the forgotten masters - A gathering equilibrium

Reach beyond the constellations
A movement towards the monumental
Universal secrets - the cosmic error

I wondered... as we beheld the world about us
I knew... as I beheld the cosmos about me

Compelled towards the spiritual black dimensions aura
As I reached for outer dimensions, my spirit became complete
