

Everywhere

The Kry

i can feel your life around me in the warmth of a summer day see the crashing of the waves like the sun on the mountain rise on the wind i see the eagle fly the sound of the ocean singing a song to You

Chorus:

everywhere i turn
everywhere
i can see the world around a picture of Your glory
everywhere i turn
i can only dream about what it's like in heaven

as i'm walkin' tonight
i can see the stars above me and the clouds movin' like a train riding on the milky way through the rain fallin' from the sky i see lightning dancing in the night the thunder i hear echoes of Your might

Repeat chorus

all creation speaks of You

everyday, everynight
everywhere i turn
everday, in the moon light
everywhere
