

You're All I Need

The Kry

why do i sway
i can't face the day without You my heart drifts away but Your love remains always true

as i'm sailin' away
on the rivers of time Your love will carry me through the storms in my life

Chorus:

You're all I need
when the world is closin' in my strength is runnin' thin when i'm lost in the storm You're all i need there's no need to look anywhere there's nothing that can compare to the love that You give You're all i need

sometimes i wait
until i can't take anymore You show me the way
You help me sail back to the shore

when i'm drifting away
on the angry tides
i cast out my anchor into the sea of Your love

Repeat chorus

You're all i need
You're all that i want nothing in this world
could give me more

Repeat chorus

why do i sway
i can't face the day without You!
all i can say
You're all i need
