

Your Glory Fills The Heavens

The Kry

The heavens declare Your glory
The skies proclaim Your works
Each day, they pour forth speech
Each night, knowledge display

My eyes fixed on You
My hands raised to You
The earth testifies
You are glorified

Your glory fills the heavens
Your glory fills the earth
The glory of Your presence
At the sound of Your name

Your glory fills the temple
Your glory fills this place
Your glory's undeniable
In the light of Your grace
In the light of Your grace

At Your name, the demons tremble
At Your name, the angels sing
Your voice is over the waters
And shakes the wilderness

My eyes fixed on You
My hands raised to You
All creation testifies
You are glorified

Your glory fills the heavens
Your glory fills the earth
The glory of Your presence
At the sound of Your name

Your glory fills the temple
Your glory fills this place
Your glory's undeniable
In the light of Your grace

No one compares to You

Alleluia glory, all Your children say
Alleluia glory, in the light of Your grace
Alleluia glory, alleluia praise
Alleluia glory, in the light of Your grace
