

Evil Eyes

The Last Vegas

I watch you walk alone, it makes me feel alright, oh, yeah
You won't see me coming, and all is yours to show.
Bitches tell a thousand words and girl, I got a few,
Right outside your window is a perfect point of view.

I watch you walk alone, it makes me feel alright, oh yeah
You won't see me coming, and all is yours to show.

The eyes that see you are the eyes that lead you
Watching you always it makes me alive.
The eyes that need you are the eyes that need you,
I'm watching you closely with the evil eyes tonight.

So when I come to look for you, you know I'm laying low,
You always play the part so well, my camera takes your soul,
I watch you walk alone, it makes me feel alright, oh yeah,
You won't see me coming, and all is yours to show.

The eyes that see you are the eyes that lead you
Watching you always it makes me alive.
The eyes that need you are the eyes that need you,
I'm watching you closely with evil eyes.

So tell me where I go to face the sorrow,
See me.
You are my obsession, you are my fantasy.

Well, well, well, look at what we have here
This is that type of girl, I gotta get down and dirty.

I watch you walk alone, it makes me feel alright,
You won't see me coming and all it goes to show.

The eyes that see you are the eyes that lead you
Watching you always it makes me alive.
The eyes that need you are the eyes that need you,
I'm watching you closely with evil eyes.

Everywhere I go, your face is all I see.
You are my obsession, you are a fantasy.
