The Lawrence Arms

Hesitation was the station I used to get on at Now it's asshole, can you picture that?

Fuck you's and them's have fucked me up An idiot who can't keep his mouth shut Oh shit, oh fuck, it's dicks to suck So bend me down, I'll pucker up

What a great, what a great way What a great, what a great way

Take a chill pill, lover, or you're gonna explode Take two of these too and you'll find that I know That what you learned on your trip to the zoo Is animals do what animals do

What you learned on your trip to the zoo Is animals do what animals do

What a great day to die What a sad way to cry You tell me "I love you" And I know it's a lie

What a great day to die What a sad way to cry You tell me you love me And I know it's a lie
