

Kingdom Come

The Leaves

Somewhere in the distance
Lights are shining bright and the days don't turn to night

Somehow we will get there
Marching hand in hand
Through the mud and through the rain

Somewhere in the future
We may come to realize
Our lucky star has never shone so bright.

Two steps from the kingdom
If we run we'll get it all
Life so bright that it will blind our eyes

Oh the speed, slows me down
Oh the heat, brings my body down to the ground

A Castle in the air, Illusion from a stare
My Castle in the air, Illusion from a stare
You almost fooled me there,
This road leads us nowhere
This thief has crushed my head to the wall

A Castle in the air, Illusion from a stare
My Castle in the air, come save me from despair
With horns and ringing bells
That's where I belong
Please grab me as I crash to the street.
