

There's Gonna Be A Storm

The Left Banke

Here you are.
Taking your life for granted while
Dreaming of your enchanted isle.
Sit back and dream awhile...awhile.

Hey hey hey there's gonna be a storm.
And if the time will come, I will follow you.
I'll speak the same words then as you liked me to.
I'm telling you a storm is due.

Here you are.
Ask me why I can only lie.
Here I am.
And there is one that I can not deny.
Just look up in the sky awhile.

Hey hey hey there's gonna be a storm.
And when the waves of love rise up all around.
Don't look for shelter because it just won't be found.
It's all around oh hear the sound.
