

Sterre

The Legendary Pink Dots

She was so sad (she was so sad)
No word of comfort really registered (so sad)
No friendly hand could steady her (she was so sad)
There was no contact, no consideration
Penetration (she was so sad)
We stood there watching from our observation post
Now here's a finger, here's a little line

We'll take you in, we'll guide you home
Now here's a finger, here's a little line
We'll take you in, we'll guide you home

(So sad) With two enormous wings
She left us standing, reaching for a ghost
And on this melancholy night
There is a star that stands alone
Far beyond the constellations
Far removed from highest heaven
Cast aside, and still we only watch
But my oh my, she's beautiful tonight
She is so beautiful tonight
She is so beautiful tonight
She is so beautiful tonight.
