

C'mon Daddy

The Lemonheads

I feel like Steven is my father and I don't know why
But I realized when he looked my eyes
I feel like Steven is my daddy and it ain't no lie
But I wanna hold ya till the end of time
So come on daddy, release my arms
Come on daddy I wanna feel your charms
Come on daddy , release my arms
I wanna hold ya till the end of time
You know I was your baby since the age of nine
You know was your baby for a long long time
But something inside me told me you weren't mine
Something inside me told me you told lies
So come on daddy, release my arms
Come on daddy, I wanna feel your charms
Come on daddy, release my arms
I wanna hold you, I wanna hold you
(higher) I wanna hold...till the end of time.
