

Take Her Down

The Lemonheads

Water falls to hold me up
Center of the sea
Someway that you'll never be

I wanna change but I don't know how
How can you let him touch you now?

Darkness folds to draw me out
Bottom of the sky
Drowning eyes they turn to die

Collector knows, forever lie
Acid in your throat, don't cry

Fire on the ocean go
Sun is sinking far below
Glowing cold but always gone
Numb and flashing off and on
Dying in your heart
Dying in your heart
Dying in your heart

Grab a hold and don't say when
Shattered on the floor
Trying not to lose it all

Your eyes like an iron wall
Waiting for the axe to fall

Fire on the ocean go
Sun is sinking far below
Glowing cold but always gone
Numb and flashing off and on
Dying in your heart
Dying in your heart
Dying in your heart
