

Bombs Away

The Let Go

Don't tell me it's all in my head
You say it doesn't matter, stop making threats
Tomorrow waits in hope
What do they want
It's already been sold
It's out of your hands now
So baby let it go
Take control
Afraid to stop until you slow

Save your breath
The only thing that's left
Bombs away to bury all the pain
Stay awake as long as you can
To fix what you began

Don't laugh it might come true
You keep us from heaven
Now save us from you
A million miles from home
What do they know i don't already know
It's out of your hands now
So baby let it go
Take control
Afraid to stop until you slow

Save your breath
Bombs away to bury all the pain
Stay awake as long as you can
To fix what you began

Save your breath
Bombs away to bury all the pain
Stay awake as long as you can
To fix what you began

So hard to take
But it's all you've got to keep from giving into you

Save your breath
Bombs away to bury all the pain
Stay awake as long as you can
To fix what you began

Save your breath
Bombs away to bury all the pain
Stay awake as long as you can
To fix what you began

Don't tell me
It's all in
My head

So hard to take...
So hard to take...
