

I want to feel something real
Something happening
And i want to prove myself to you
But it's not happening
So don't come any closer
Cause i won't admit it's over
Keep your hands where i can see them
I can't see anything
You don't like me
And i don't like you
Let's call a truce
You make things seem
So extreme
And i can't afford to change horse midstream
So don't come any closer
Cause i won't admit it's over
Keep your hands where i can see them
I can't see anything
