

Run And Hide

The Let Go

Way down we go underground
There we lie and wait
Burried arms we suffocate
Spare the irony
Save me from your rivalry
The more you make it fit
The more it burns, the less it quits
This will break our deal
Until you tell me where did you go for real
We won't keep our mouths shut, or our eyes peeled

Cause we can't wait forever
Will we ever
Lick our wonds feel better
Maybe never
We can't hide forever
We don't have the guts to try
Say goodbye

Zoom in the harder that we look
The more there is to miss
Open palms and bloody fists
Always a dry run
Never one to jump the gun
How much can you take I may be wrong, but maybe that's ok
This will break our deal
Until you tell me where did you go for real
We don't look surprise
How does that feel

Cause we can't wait forever
Will we ever
Lick our wonds feel better
Maybe never
We can't hide forever
We don't have the guts to try
Or the will to leave

I can't believe it
I expect it from them, but never from you
You didn't have to be so mean, so ugly

Cause we can't wait forever
Will we ever
Lick our wonds feel better
Maybe never
We can't hide forever
We don't have the guts to try
Cause we can't wait forever
Will we ever
Maybe never
We can't hide forever
We don't have the guts to try
Say goodbye
Goodbye
