

Different Face

The Letter Black

The world is fading away it's dying today
Along with everything it craves

Deceiving everything that stands in its way
It doesn't care who you are

I want the truth when what we say
Is not in line with what we do
I want to see a different face
Not like the one you see in me

This world will some day end
It's not far away
Will you die or choose to live someday
