

Invisible

The Letter Black

You're broken down inside
But won't give up the fight
These empty eyes I see
Are staring back at me
If you pull me out, I won't let you down

Invisible
You're beautiful
Walking through this world we call our home
Invisible
Wont let you go
Now I know I'm starting to feel you

My failure makes me hate
Am I already late
And every day I crave
The touch of your embrace
But now I see, what you mean to me

Invisible
You're beautiful
Invisible
Just like me
