Meant for You

The Letter Black

Stop believing all the lies
It's time to draw the line
Please don't waste your time
Looking on the outside
I know what's inside
You think that you're blind
But I can see what's wrong glaring through your eyes
(Glaring through your eyes)

I see you
Do you see me?
You hide your pain for all to see
I feel you
Do you feel me?
Don't blame yourself for everything
This blood lies meant for you

Don't read between the lines
Stop being the black and white
So if you want to change
Start looking on the Inside
Pretending you're fine
I know you're not right
But I can see what's wrong glaring through your eyes
(Glaring through your eyes)

I see you
Do you see me?
You hide your pain for all to see
I feel you
Do you feel me?
Don't blame yourself for everything
This blood lies meant for you

Covered in this blood
I feel comfort
In this blood

I see you
Do you see me?
You hide your pain for all to see
I feel you
Do you feel me?
Don't blame yourself for everything
I see you
Do you see me?
You hide your pain for all to see
I feel you
Do you feel me?
Don't blame yourself for everything
This blood lies meant for you
