

Under God

The Letter Black

You always try to ignore Him
But in the end you'll know he's real
For some reason, you have decided
He isn't real

Won't you tell me
Why things have gotten out of hand
Did we go wrong
We're no longer
No longer under God

Keep pretending that He's not here
But know that you won't escape hell
For some reason you have decided
He isn't real

Does this surprise you
Why does this surprise you
