

Alone in this Darkness

The Levellers

Blood red, sister rose When I first saw you, my heart froze oh Tired eyes let demons in Make you see things that have never be en, oh

Traced your scars with my finger tips Taste your sweat in quive ring sips oh Anticipation, toward desire, Senses ringing we nev er tire oh

Now we cry alone in the darkness Now we cry in the night oh.. N ow we cry alone in this darkness Now we cry in the night oh..

Here am I, hypnotised I have hurt for you and I lied Did I leav e my mark on you? Am I in your soul and everything you do? Oh t hese precious moments that we endowed How I wish you were with me now

Now we cry alone in the darkness Now we cry in the night oh Now we cry alone in this darkness Now we cry in the night oh
