

Barrel of the Gun

The Levellers

In a strange land
far from these shores
lay two man and a woman killed by the law

In no matter what country under the sun
you can't meter justice from the barrel of a gun

A car bomb they say the S.A.S. on offense shot in the back
makes no difference

shoot to kill
'til both sides have their fill
'til both sides have their martyrs and all the kids have no fathers

'til you mothers have no sons and the battle it is won when both sides
they have lost
all the blood that it cost
