

Julie

The Levellers

Julie was a lonely girl
Said she was born that way
She always felt that way
She left home at age sixteen
Got a job, what you're supposed to do
That's what you gotta do
She fell in love and settled down
In a council place out on the edge of town
She'd feel alone in a crowded room

Cry when she heard a happy tune

(same chords as last verse)
Well it would be nice to holiday
'Till they took her job away
They just took her life away
And doing nothing isn't fun when you've nothing from which to run
Yeah, you've nowhere left to run
She'd visit the social every day
Every time be turned away
Every time be turned away
She'd feel alone in a crowded room
Cry when she heard a happy tune

(Chords used for the bridge are D,G and A, but I'm not sure about the order,
It's been a long time since I last heard this song.

A hundred stairs to her new room
Over glass and blackened spoons
Children grow old so soon
Past the kids who gather there
Pain masked by narcotic stares
But no-one really cares
Her dreams were cut up and bled dry
A million voices in her cry
Julie waits, her world is her window
And Julie hates just what she doesn't know
And Julie hates, she hates the world below

But Julie loves, she loves too much too know...
