

Sail Away

The Levellers

Down the hill, I wander
Just to watch the world go by Passers by pass under
Underneath the clear blue sky

No one seems to notice
No one seems to even wonder why

And as I sit, I sail away
It is as if I broke the line
'Cause nothing really matters
Nothing matters all the time

But no one seems to notice
No one seems to even wonder why
