

Sleeping

The Levellers

You were born out of one
But you were made as two
You were made to go on
You've forgotten what to do
So wake up now I'm begging you
You sleep and sleep on
It's all you ever do
Has your comfort now gone
When you look around the room
And remember the fire, the fire in you
The sleeping excuse that's all you ever do
And it's really no use
When there's so much left for us to do
Can you make some time
For what is always yours and mine
I've seen you cutting loose
I've seen you stretched out
On the line
Try and remember the truth
Without you we're all no use
Wake up my friend
