

Truth Is

The Levellers

Go on and speak your mind,
let's find out what it is you have to say
I hope nobody turns away
You said it loud and clear:
we have to work, we have to earn our pay
Well I'm sorry, not today.
Oh I'm sorry, not today.

Truth is if I don't make it
Then you can't take it,
And if I don't sew it
Then you can't wear it.
Truth is if I don't grow it
Then you can't eat it,
And if I don't mate it
Then you can't shoot it.
It's that little bit left over at the end.

I read your paper and I found out what it is you have to say
And then I let it blow away
I voted for you and against you
Over here you seem to stay
Oh when will you go away?
Oh when will you go away?

Truth is if I don't make it
Then you can't take it,
And if I don't sew it
Then you can't wear it.
Truth is if I don't grow it
Then you can't eat it,
And if I don't mate it
Then you can't shoot it.

You've got it all
You've got it all and it's still not enough
You've got it all
You've got it all and it's still not enough

Truth is if I don't make it
Then you can't take it,
And if I don't sew it
Then you can't wear it.
Truth is if I don't grow it
Then you can't eat it,
And if I don't mate it
Then you can't shoot it.
Truth is if I don't make it
Then you can't take it,
And if I don't sew it
Then you can't wear it.
Truth is if I don't grow it
Then you can't eat it,
And if I don't mate it
Then you can't shoot it.
