

The Ha Ha Wall

The Libertines

If you get tired of just hanging around
Pick up a guitar and spin a web of sound
And then you could be strung out all day
With lovers and clowns
But now I find myself hanging around

It's been a long war, we're tired and dirty
Still not dirty enough for you

Well I've been thieving
I stole the light from the dawn
And if you come round this ledge you wish you'd never been born tell me can you see me
Can't you see through it all?
I'm empty lost and alone
Oh won't you heed my call?
It's been a long war, we're tired and dirty
Still not dirty enough for you
Oh I'm so tired of hanging around
Oh I'll pick up a guitar, spin a web of soundss

So tired - of hanging around
