

Open Goals

The Lightning Seeds

Woke up and smiled this morning
Wishes swam like fishes in my head
I rub my eyes as all the reasons chase the
Demons from my bed
I'm on top of the world
And it's just for a moment
I know all the right words
And I wish that I'd told you that I know now, I know how
Come and splash in the waves and they'll kiss you with cold
'Till you shiver and say that you wish I would hold you
Well I know now
I know how

Woke up and smiled this morning
Wishes swam like fishes in my head
I rubbed my eyes as all the reasons chase the
Demons from my head
Open goals that call me over
I've got to take them
Don't fall over again
