

Silent Victory

The Living End

Somewhere beneath the laughter
The anger begins to affect her
Timid like a Chinese whisper
Calm like a needle in the eye of a twister

We won't surrender
Until the end
Truthful pretender
Won't someone hear the battle-cry

She said you're a substitute
She said can't you see we're through
One more silent victory
Victory

Struggling hard to forget her
He slowly begins to regret her
Anger is all that she lived for
Walked over his life and then out through the front door

We won't surrender
Until the end
Truthful pretender
Won't someone hear the battle-cry

We won't surrender until the end
Truthful pretender
Like somebody seized the day
Love ran away
