

Tragedy (Demo)

The Living End

And so it ended in Tragedy
And now the future is hard to see
What lies ahead is undetected
But it all ended in Tragedy

Will you admit defeat? In Tragedy?

Back when it it started
Any hands were clean
All that you wanted
Was to be released

You had a lot of heart on your sleeve
But it all ended in Tragedy

Will you admit defeat? In Tragedy?

Now its all over, can you admit defeat?
Battled and shaken in to next week
You've come a long long way to be here
But it all ended in Tragedy

Will you admit defeat? in Tragedy?

Will we ever be reunited?
Will we ever be reunited?
Those who don't believe, well off with their heads
Well off with their heads
Well off with their heads

Will ever be reunited?
Will we ever be reunited?
Those who don't believe, well off with their heads
Well off with their heads
Well off with their heads

In Tragedy, will you admit defeat?
In Tragedy, will you admit defeat?
In Tragedy....
