

(I Am) The Love Addict

The Lonely Forest

When I thought I had nothing
Nothing good to give.
You appeared, won my heart
And Showed me I must die to live
Take my pride
Please remove these selfish thoughts
Save me from the world,
I wanna be addicted to love
I wanna be addicted to love
I wanna be addicted to Love (oh oh oh oh)
By the way all my body really needs
Is a spirited soul for the pain to ease
But I know that this road, it isn't going to bring me peace
Give me something new For my soul to use
Something beautiful for my heart to abuse
The drugs are never enough
I wanna be addicted to love
I wanna be addicted to love
I wanna be addicted
And why are we so, Love-less?
I'm worried, please hurry
And why are we so love-less?
I'm worried, please take me home
I wanna be addicted to love
I wanna be addicted to love (I want to be) X8
I want to be addicted to love (oh oh oh)
