

Tunnels

The Lonely Forest

up down tunnels underground it's your to fight off

its your fight off you dig lies to get around obvious contradictions childish self-affliction
up down tunnels underground
now it's yours to fight off

he was a spy lurking around in an attempt to save you I was the dove to warn you
up down tunnels underground
now he's yours to fight off my heart is a room in a ramshackle house where the shades have been drawn and the scenery is gone where is the sun?

my body's cold occasionally visitors come and they knock trying to see if someone is inside I try to speak but no one's there
