

Shakedown At The Six

The Lord Weird Slough Feg

Racing down the naked highway
Three AM is coming my way
Brother it's another shakedown

Tank is down at less than zero
Painted savage, nasty hero
Brother it's another shakedown

Mirrors breaking in the shower
Hear them outside, feel their power
Brother it's another shakedown

Sirens moaning in the street
They're kicking doors in, feel the heat
Brother it's another shakedown
