

Bad Timing

The Lords Of The New Church

I never said I loved ya
Leave off-I never cared
Just kept you 'round to do my cleanin'
You were just one of my chairs
Chorus
Don't you know that it was just bad timing?
You had a need to feel secure
Why did you leave me?
Don't want to be lonely
Why did you leave me?
Don't know how to show you Can't you see that I need you awh...
You fill me with inertia
I don't share privacy, I don't want no friend
Our life together's got to end
Chorus
can't show you, can't tell you awrh!
You left a bood ring in my bath
You used my last blade on your veins
You never told me you were leavin'
You never talked about the pain
Chorus
Don't you know that it was just bad timing?
I just made you fee so insecure
oh why did you leave me?
Did you feel that lonely?
Why did you leave me? The finish came between us
Can never be able to say that I always.....Loved ya'
