

Rock Band

The Lost Trailers

There is a time, caught in a moment;
When all is right, and we all know it,
And in this place, there is a reason...
To watch the faces smiling under the sun.

So set 'em up, set 'em up, for the Rock Band,
Set 'em up, set 'em up, 'till they're falling down.
So set 'em up, set 'em up, for the Rock Band,
'till they're falling down.

There is a road that is worth traveling,
There is a heart that is worth loving,
This is the time to be spending...
On a world we should be mending now.

So set 'em up, set 'em up, for the Rock Band,
Set 'em up, set 'em up, 'till they're falling down.
So set 'em up, set 'em up, for the Rock Band,
'till they're falling down.
