Summer Of Love

The Lost Trailers

She was standin there with her big, blue, question-mark eyes Sayin, Would you stay the night and me, I was just seventeen, m y very first time $\frac{1}{2}$

But I knew it was right, she pulled off my baseball hat We kissed and I knew there was no lookin back

By the end of May, I could feel the change She pulled me close to say

I want a summer of misbehavin, out all night, no reservations Hittin that river, strippin down till the sun comes up Oh, I want a summer of love

June flew by, before we knew it, it was the 4th of July So we headed to the Tennessee line Bought a hundred bottle rockets, shot em up in the sky And they lit up the night like risin stars that burn to dust And I said, baby, thats just like us

Someone set us up, lit the fuse Two young lovers with nothing to lose

But a summer of misbehavin, out all night, no reservations Hittin that river, strippin down till the sun comes up Oh, I want a summer of love

No matter what happens, well have today And Ill always, pretty baby, wanna feel this way

I want a summer of misbehavin, out all night, no reservations Hittin that river, strippin down till the sun comes up Oh, I want a summer of love

Na, na, na, out all night, hittin that river, strippin down til ${\bf l}$ the sun comes up

Like risin stars, poppin and burnin to dust, yeah, that was us
