

Shadow

The Lurkers

Shadow shadow shadow shadow shadow shadow shadow
My heart's in the shadow
His heart's in the shadow
My heart's in the shadow
His heart's in the shadow. go go (oh no) (oh well)

I heard you got a new boy, he's got more than me
He's lots of fun to have around, he's got lots of money

Last night i saw you dancing, i had to watch you all the while
He whispered something in your ear, you both saw me and smiled

Jenny said she'd lend me a gun, she knows i'm not well
Then i'll shoot that boy in the legs, when he comes to ring you
