

Thought I Wasn't Ready

The Magic Numbers

Funny
Thought I wasn't ready
For your love
I thought he wasn't meant for me.

I thought I wasn't ready
But now that he's gone

Love is not what it appears to be
From now on
I'm just a fair memory.

I thought I wasn't ready
But now that you're gone

You were willing to wait a little longer
I was hoping the feeling will be stronger
I was looking tear me to your eyes

You can't decide when the moment arrives
For us

But now that you're gone
Thought I wasn't ready
But now that you're gone

Friends they say
Is not that if its easy
From now on
My life is in a minor key.

He thought he wasn't ready
But now it's all gone
I thought you weren't meant for me
But now that you're gone

You were willing to wait a little longer
I was hoping the feeling will be stronger
I just need you to hold me in your arms

You can't decide when the moment arrives
For us

But now that you're gone
Thought I wasn't ready
But now that you're gone
Thought I wasn't ready
Now that you're gone
Thought I wasn't ready
