

Throwing My Heart Away

The Magic Numbers

Picture this in black and white
To silhouette the world collide
I wished upon a shooting star
To know how always wonder where you are

I watch as it circles round
And then it came crashing down
I stand frozen by in the moment
Blinded by the light
Rest my soul tonight
Whatever it may lie
It's time

Happiness I never had
Hand up, you can touch the sky
Won't you feed me to the wolves instead
What a sentimental am I?

I am damaged by the wreckage
Searching for a sign
Rest my soul tonight
Whatever it may lie
It's time

Throwing My Heart Away
Throwing My Heart Away
Throwing My Heart Away
Throwing My Heart

Needles at the record
Gets the song to play in my head
So the mystery are fold inside
Where shadows find a way to hide

I'm still searching for the clues
Lead me to the signs
Rest my soul tonight
I never even said
Goodbye

Throwing My Heart Away
(Seems like it will never end)
Throwing My Heart Away
(Slow as I shiver)
Throwing My Heart Away
Throwing My Heart

Heard in every beat of my heart
When I was falling apart
