The Magic Numbers

Better not try to beat you tonight
If I'm not the one you want
In this house of cards
It'd be a false alarm from the start

Better if time stops me from crying
I just wanna bring you back
If this here place puts a smile on your face
Was I born to love alone?

I don't wanna hear you cry no more
Step inside the door
I don't wanna hear those lies, I'm sure
I've heard it all before, oh

And you left me waiting so long
I was waiting so long
I've been waiting so long

What if I'd known I was alone
Each time I took you in
There's a sound that you make
When you lie to my face, don't you know?

Tell me you've changed full to the game
Am I not the one you want?
It's like my heart aches with each knock that you make
Was I born to love alone?

I don't wanna hear you cry no more
Step inside the door
I don't wanna hear those lies, I'm sure
I've heard it all before, oh

And you left me waiting so long
I was waiting so long
I've been waiting so long

It's undecided love
But you never believe me and maybe I know
Honey, I know
It's undecided love

But you never believe me and maybe I know
Honey, I know
It's undecided love
But you never believe me and maybe I know

Taking it away, you can't complain
So every little blue I have
Gotta find peace of mind
When I look at the tear that it's gone

It's time to let you know
I don't wanna hear you cry no more
Step inside the door
I don't wanna hear those lies, I'm sure

I've heard it all before, oh

And you left me waiting so long
I was waiting so long
I've been waiting so long

It's undecided love
But you never believe me and maybe I know
Honey, I know
It's undecided love

But you never believe and maybe I know
Honey, I know
It's undecided love

But you never believe and maybe I know
Honey, I know

It's undecided love
But you never believe me and maybe I know
It's undecided love

It's undecided love
But you never believe me and maybe I know
It's undecided love

It's undecided love
