

Wake Up

The Magic Numbers

Wake up
Open up your eyes
We're imprisoned by our own affection
Is that all you'd leave behind?

Future
You sentimental fools
Let's pretend in life it never happen
And the universe is still wide open

Nobody knows this is happening
It's happening
Nobody knows this is happening
It's happening
It's happening
Right before our eyes
Ahh ahh

Lover
We stare into the void
And all those lonely frightening little people
Are staring back at us

Power
This self-destructive voice
And if the hand that gives just keeps on taking
What becomes of us if we keep breaking

Nobody knows this is happening
It's happening
Nobody knows this is happening
It's happening
It's happening
Right before our eyes
Ahh ahh

Ain't it funny
How time just slips away
And you force to move on
But you're fumbling instead

How powerless am I
(Our love is lacking anymore)
How powerless am I
(I love you lacking anymore)
Like a mother to a child
(Our love is lacking anymore)
We put you here
(I love you lacking anymore)
Oh ain't it funny
(Our love is lacking anymore)
That darkness fades away
(I love you lacking anymore)
And you're over, she never thought...
(Our love is lacking anymore)
Would it all remain
(I love you lacking anymore)

(I love you lacking anymore)
(I love you lacking anymore)
