

Abigail, Belle of Kilronan

The Magnetic Fields

Abigail can you feel my heart in the palm of your hand
And do you understand why I can't stay
Abigail an evil wind is blowing

Through the land and they need every man to drive it away
When I come home if I come home you'll be a grown woman
When I come home if I come home don't be alone, Abigail, belle of Kilronan

Abigail 's gonna be the beauty of County Galway and she will li ve always
In a world of love
Abigail I'm off to the war but you can be sure I will know you're what I'm fighting for
