I Don't Like Your Tone

The Magnetic Fields

You sigh that I should try your love I'll never be alone That you are true, you coo, my dove But I don't like your tone

You were, you murmur, further just a child But now you're grown You hiss that this is bliss, God blessed But I don't like your tone

What's with all this purring? Are you a cat? Why are we whispering? Love's not like that

When near I hear how clear you make Your so called feelings known It's queer, my dear, I fear heartbreak But I don't like your tone
