

I'll Dream Alone

The Magnetic Fields

Long
and lonely nights
I've waited for you
to put things to rights leaving you to do
your thing without disturbance from me
Somehow I doubt
you'll ever be back
I'll keep your things
If you ever need them
the phone still rings
And now that you're free of me at last
your time is your own
Go have a blast
and

I'll dream alone without you I'll dream alone if I must because I guess our little castle in the sky just turned to dust So I'll dream alone that's showbiz and I'll be trying not to dream of what once was and might have been if only I'd known
I'll dream alone
