Seduced and Abandoned

The Magnetic Fields

Seduced and abandoned and baby makes two Baby, abandoned by you Seduced and abandoned and what can I do? I think I might drink a few

Seduced with a grin, I was taken all in Taken in sin and in shame
Seduced by a smile, I walked down the aisle Then waited awhile, no one came

Seduced and abandoned and baby makes two Baby, abandoned by you Seduced and abandoned and what can I do? I think I might drink a few

Abandoned to weep, I collapsed in a heap Dutifully sleeping all day Abandoned to die, I did nothing but cry In my one-ply negligée

Seduced and abandoned and baby makes two Baby, abandoned by you Seduced and abandoned and what can I do? I think I might drink a few

Yes, I think I might drink a few And maybe the baby will too
