

With Whom to Dance?

The Magnetic Fields

Moons in June
I've given up on that stuff
Arms have charms
But I've no hope of falling in love

The rest of life pales in significance
I'm looking for somebody with whom to dance
With whom to dance? With whom to dance?
I'm looking for somebody with whom to dance

Rings and strings
What use have I for these things?
Bells and carousels
I'd just be fooling myself

The rest of life pales in significance
I'm looking for somebody with whom to dance
With whom to dance? With whom to dance?
I'm looking for somebody with whom to dance

And you, you look like heaven
An angel who stepped from a dream
777 times lovelier than Anything I've ever seen

The rest of life pales in significance
I'm looking for somebody with whom to dance
With whom to dance? With whom to dance?
I'm looking for somebody with whom to dance
